CLASSIC SOLID WOOD DOORS

Premium Natural Wood Entrance Systems

At Pollard, we know how to make an entrance – naturally! With the Classic Wood Doors you can create a truly custom exterior door in many types of solid woods. All materials are carefully sourced through a strict quality control process to create a long lasting, beautifully natural entrance way.

Limitless possibilities in

We all know how important first impressions are, and nowhere more so than with your home's front door. Pollard's Classic Doors offer the timeless beauty of real wood and with the right care, a wood door can last for generations.

Why choose wood? The eco-friendly properties of wood help to insulate your home or property while protecting the environment. Wood is renewable, reusable, recyclable and biodegradable. And, wood is one of the best insulators of all structural building materials. Each of our solid wood door systems provides a beautiful accent that is everlasting.

Extraordinary Design and Millwork

All Classic Doors are handcrafted from 100% solid wood using traditional stile and rail construction with dowel joinery and full thickness raised panels. All combined, master craftsmen produce a very durable and strong, and yet beautiful entry system. Our expert design team will create your dream door from design to reality. We'll be inspired by your wish list and fabricate your unique entrance with the utmost attention to detail.

About Pollard

Pollard Windows & Doors is a third generation family business, established in 1948. The Pollard formula for success has been hard work, reinvesting in new technology, and a consistent desire to give our customers more for their money. Today our plant has grown to over 300,000 sq.ft. and we are recognized as a leader in window and door manufacturing technology. Beyond our equipment, is the strong sense of family that is ever present at Pollard. It is that family tradition and a lasting commitment to exceptional value that has been the blueprint to our success.
